

- Educational qualification Ph.D (Organic Chemistry) + Post Doctoral fellowship
- Years of experience 10-12 years
- Job Scope/ Purpose
- To provide scientific (80%) and strategic (20%) leadership in operating chemistry related drug discovery project(s).
 - Independently manages and directs the drug designing and synthesis efforts in projects and is accountable for the success of these projects.
 - Responsible for optimal utilization of resources in the specific project team through monitoring, measuring and reporting on scientific issues, opportunities and developmental plans and achievements within agreed formats & timescales.
 - Developing and advances novel molecules with a complete understanding of scientific aspects and criteria for client acceptance.
 - To manage teams comprising of Research Associates/ Scientists.
- Experience required Industry experience in medicinal chemistry/ drug discovery/ design of novel chemical entities. Expertise in handling both scientific & operational responsibilities.

Apply Now

Submit your application and CV

