

VETERINARY PATHOLOGIST

Educational qualifications	M.V. Sc (Veterinary Pathology)
Years of experience	8-12 years
Job Scope / Purpose	Provide histopathological evaluation for toxicology & efficacy studies.
Key Responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Preparation of pathology reports.</li><li>• Study Pathologist for GLP Acute, Sub-acute and sub-chronic toxicological studies.</li><li>• Responsible for the development and maintenance of Pathology function to support in vivo toxicology and pharmacology studies.</li><li>• Responsible for validation of new methods or technique for histopathology.</li><li>• Conduct gross pathological examination for acute to sub-chronic toxicological studies</li><li>• Conduct Serum /plasma Biochemistry analysis and interpretation of results.</li><li>• Responsible for veterinary/clinical examination of all experimental laboratory animals.</li><li>• Responsible for Standard Operating Procedures (SOP), Guidance Documents and Standard Formats.</li><li>• Provides significant technical/scientific inputs into the design of the studies, working as a part of the research team.</li></ul>
Behavioral and Soft Skills	Multitasking and should be able to work in different phases of the toxicity studies.

Apply now

Submit your application and CV

